Who this is for

A team with useful docs, SOPs, or training material that people still struggle to use.

Common situations

- Internal SOP support
- Sales enablement answers
- Customer success playbooks

What you get

- Review of one document set or knowledge base
- A plan for what the assistant should answer and how it should work
- Prompt and answer guidelines for the people using it
- A checklist for testing quality before launch

Results

- A clear assistant plan for one document set
- Better guidance on how answers should be written and reviewed
- A stronger rollout path for internal adoption

Why people choose this package

- Good for teams that already have documents but want faster answers
- Focused on one knowledge area so the scope stays clear
- Includes quality checks before launch

CLIENT FEEDBACK

We finished with a clear assistant plan instead of another vague AI discussion.

Head of Enablement · B2B Revenue Team

The team had a clear scope, rollout path, and quality plan.

Package terms

- One document set or knowledge area per package
- Existing source material is needed before work starts
- Larger implementation work can continue separately
